

Drysuit Speciality

For those wishing to dive in the UK throughout the year a dry suit is a must. Under the guidance of a PADI Dry suit Speciality instructor you will be introduced to the advantages of using a dry suit through two open water dives and will learn the knowledge and skills required to plan and perform a dry suit dive. Time will be spent in the classroom where the different types of suits, valves and under suits will be discussed. You will also be taught basic dry suit care and maintenance.
